

Create Peace Project presents

The 2010/2011 Peace Exchange

an international exchange of art and messages of peace

Get Your School Involved!

Be part of this year's 10,000 U.S. students exchanging postcards for peace with 10,000 students in India!

The Peace Exchange

- Students create art and share messages of peace on a "peace card"
- One-to-One exchange between 20,000 students from the U.S. and India and between 6,000 students from India and Uganda
- Enrolls students in a tangible global art-for-peace project
- Inspires youth to share their voice as an act of peace
- Promotes cross-cultural understanding and builds connections
- Supports teachers in creating a peaceful classroom using simple peace practices

This project is powered by kindness and your generosity.

We ask for contributions based on your school's ability & desire to support this project.

Your donations cover the cost of printing, postage, workshop facilitation, travel, documentation and display.

For more information email: info@createpeaceproject.org

To request a package of postcards and instructions to participate, please sign up on-line

www.createpeaceproject.org